By Maude Miller

It was Friday, December 30. The post-Christmas hush had descended on the Sam Levy Department Store. Hardly a creature was stirring... not even a customer making exchanges. When with a loud peal the back door buzzer rings, the huge metal door is flung open, and twenty-nine cases of Christmas gift boxes arrive! "Only one month late," says Ella. "But, by golly, we're sure ready for next Christmas!"

Talking about exchanges, or the lack of them... Ella helped Sue Moody's husband pick out a stack of personal gifts for Sue... slacks, skirts, blouses, sweaters, even bras and panties (real coordinated gift buying.) Early Tuesday a.m. December 27, Sue called the Store. "Ella," she said, "I just read my horoscope. And my horoscope for today says I should call someone I know and say something nice. So I called you immediately to tell you that everything fits, and I've practically worn them out already!"

So... advice to wives: give Ella a list of your sizes and your horoscope will give you no trouble at all.

Woman Side
Top secret: Don't tell anybody, but there are a few racks of dresses at the Store reduced way down. Terrific buys... as are all our dresses, even at regular prices. Closing out some cashmere sweaters too. Grab em!!

Spring note: Watch for these three nationally advertised lines coming into stock in about ten days... "Pat Prema," Betty Barclay" and "Junior House." There's a price range for everybody, from a smart, thrifty $10.95 to a fashion-setting, stunning $69.95. First super-colossal preview showing will be on Saturday, January 14 at the Store.

Man Side
Ray will be buying the best the country has to offer at the best possible prices... when he covers the showings next week of the leading clothing manufacturers at the Biltmore and Ambassador Hotels. So

Fleischman To Assume Scout Post

A former volunteer scouter in the Harbor District of the Los Angeles area council is returning on the professional staff according to Al Molter, district scout executive.

Robert J. Fleischman, who will soon establish residence in the Harbor area, attended New York University and the University of California at Los Angeles majoring in geology.

"The new field executive's background includes personnel work at Twentieth Century Fox Studios and the Prudential Insurance company.

In Fleischman's volunteer background is service on the hard-working harbor commissioner staff and work on the organization and extension committee, which is one of the most active committees in the entire Los Angeles area council.

The special service division of the council was the first professional scouting step for Fleischman who was selected to attend the recent National Training School session in New Jersey.

Other activities for Fleischman include membership in the Knights of Columbus, the Holy Name society and the American Camping association.

Kiwanis Peanut Sale

Editor: Torrance Press

The Kids' Day Committee of the Torrance Kiwanis Club and its officers and members wish to thank you for the fine support and cooperation given us during our Peanut Sale. Your contribution of space in your paper helped make this fundraising drive an outstanding success. We hope that we may call upon you again in future drives.

The entire profits will be dispersed within our own community to worthwhile groups and activities that aid the youth of this area.

Gratefully your,

don't buy anything for Spring or Summer 'til you see what he turns up with!

Exclamation point: By press time not one Christmas-gift necktie had been brought in for exchange!

Not new, but good. Have you discovered those Nylon stretch socks? Absolutely impossible to shrink or ruin 'em, and they come in the handsomest patterns!

Our Side
We like the new three-cent postage stamp, showing the earth with the words, "Atoms For Peace," and around the sides, "To find the way by which the inventiveness of man shall be consecrated to his life." A good thought for the New Year! And everything else we need for a happy year can be found right here at home... specially at 1311 Sartori... Sam Levy Department Store. Naturally!

Co-ordinating Council Will Discuss New Committees

The Torrance Coordinating council will meet tonight January 5, at 7:30 p.m., at the Greenwood Elementary school, Greenwood and Sonoma streets.

On the agenda will be discussion regarding the development of a Christmas clearinghouse for Social Services; and discussion regarding the function of the five committees decided upon at the last meeting. These committees are: youth activities, recreation for adults and youth, health, welfare and mental hygiene, safety and civic improvement, and human relations and community hospitality.

Pacific Hills Home Owners Elects Leaders

Members of the Pacific Hills Homeowners association will hold their annual election at their January 9 meeting in the WALTERIA school auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Also to be discussed at the time is the proposed Rolling Hills dump and Madison street ditch. Members will also consider aid to the new boy scout recreation center.

Separation

It was decided to separate youth activities from recreation for adults and youth as a result of the Town Meeting on juvenile delinquency held in Torrance recently.

These results may be expressed in some quotations from youth representatives. "We have set up a service for placement of teen-agers. There are several hundred of us registered but there are only a few jobs available... For our leisure time it would be wonderful if we had a shop where we could work on our cars evenings."

'Little Red School House' Read at Redlands

Editor: Torrance Press

Your "Little Red School House" articles are attracting attention at the University of Redlands, not only because I was a WALTERIA teacher over seven years (through last June) but one of our professors at the university this year worked for several years in Corona with Dr. Hull—then Mr. Hull.

(Please send us) your complete papers which directly include the four articles concerning WALTERIA's "Little Red School House" experiment.

These we will turn over to the Education Department (Dr. Bishop), University of Redlands. And at the last of the year, or any other time such large summary material appears in your paper concerning this experiment, please C.O.D. us this paper in some way...

Most sincerely,
